COMMITTEE REPORTS

Mr. Pomeroy stated that the next meeting of the Committee would be December 2. The meeting would consist of preparation for the Community Input Meeting scheduled for December 11th. He asked for assistance in setting up the Association Building on December 10, at 9:00 a.m. for the meeting of the 11th.

Mr. Pierce stated he had issued a press release to the Littlerock Chamber of Commerce for inclusion in their newsletter, as well as the Antelope Valley Press and the Daily News. At this point, none had been seen in the respective papers.

Chairperson Lori Zink reported that the Fire Safe Council would meet on December 7, 2004 at her home. She asked that the committee be included at the January 5, 2005 meeting. This would include a presentation by John Livermore of the Los Angeles County Fire Department. He will speak on brush clearance and fire breaks. Motion was made by Mrs. Richter, second by Don Pierce to include time for the Fire Safe Committee to have a presentation.

Mrs. Unini stated she is in the process of determining the pros and cons of non-profit corporation status.

Web Page

Resource Development Page --- Mr. Weatherbie stated this has been completed.

Mr. Pomeroy stated that he had not yet purchased the new voter CD.

Mail Lists

Mr. Pomeroy stated it is necessary for the JHTC to locate the ISP for the "other" web site.

JHTC Asset Preservation Program

Mrs. Richter stated she has been searching for information on registering a "Trademark." She stated that concluded her search, and that perhaps a "Service Mark" might be more appropriate than a Trademark. The expense necessary to acquire a Trademark, Service Mark, or Copyright make it almost prohibitive to do so.

NEW BUSINESS

General discussion was held regarding the Newsletter and the mailing list. The mailing list must be getting better as we have very few returns.
